Hey Lewis Ski Club! How's everyone doin'?

September was another busy month for the Lewis Ski Club. We started up our regular club meetings and had a very informative talk about training, stretch and diet. Don't miss our next meeting, we're raffling off a free pass for one of our one day trips this winter. Alpine Valley and Boston Mills are both holding open houses October 14th, 15th and 16th. Along with that comes your chance to pick up a Pick-a-Day pass cheap AND get entered in a drawing for a free Pick-a-Day pass (see the Pick-a-Day article). We'll be having a booth and will need people to man it (hint, hint trip leaders). A sign-up sheet will be available at the next meeting.

Our very own Barb Cool is vying for Ski Queen of Cleveland Metro Ski Council. Don't miss the pageant November 5th at Ampol Hall. Tickets are $20 and will be available at the October and November meetings. Drinks and refreshments will be provided so come on out, eat, drink, be merry and support Barb and your ski club.

We're also planning an afternoon of ice skating at the Cleveland Heights Rec Center November 13th. Check out the article for more info.

By the way, your ski club membership needs to be renewed. Why not fill out the membership form in the back of the newsletter today?

See you at the meeting.

Your president,
Tim

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7th Trendy Tremont: ART + Wine + Appetizers

We are going to paint the town Red/White with wine in the trendy Tremont area starting at 6:00P. We are being hosted in a private back-patio/sculpture garden of Atmosphere Gallery. You'll enter through the front door of the gallery and proceed on to the back door, passing unique art.

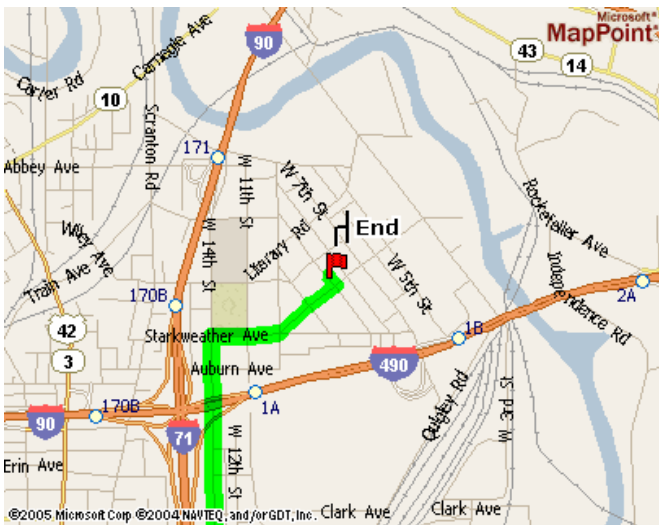

Once in the sculpture garden, please walk back to the covered entertainment area. The wine and food will be at the bar. The setting emphasizes conversations and possibly some dancing under the stars! Rain or shine it's a grand place for us to gather—quite fun & flavorful.

The Atmosphere Gallery has invited us to mingle and view art, to stroll around checking out the Tremont neighborhood, to grab a bite to eat and return as often as we'd like to our club's reserved entertainment area.

In fact, Atmosphere Gallery is filled with jewelry and various mediums of art work from drawings to giant martini glasses. Shoppers remember to bring pocket books for a rare find. On the same block is a cute ice cream store, galleries with oil paintings, glass works, clothes, restaurants and pubs, plus more shops within just a few blocks.

The theme for Friday night is Eclectic and the Deal is that everyone Signs Up to bring a Bottle of Wine OR an Appetizer. That way everyone brings something to share-- creating an eclectic smorgasbord of flavors!! Plus, don't forget to bring your own wine glass! Yes, bring that Wine Glass on a Rope! We'll also have a bottle of sparkling juice (non-alcoholic) for drivers and for those that prefer less detonation. Our club's president has already signed-up to come and he's bringing a bottle of grape sparkle to share. Other's can sign up to bring that as well.

Atmosphere Gallery is located (see map insert) at 2379 Professor Ave. in Tremont (Cleveland) next to Edison's Pub. Parking is street parking, come early to be close. Don't forget to RSVP your intended bounty that you'll be sharing. We want to ensure we have heavy appetizers and plenty of wine to taste. Don't miss out—we are going to have a wine-ter-rific-time! Any comments and RSVPs should be directed to the 3 Hostesses: Carol Cash at carol.cash@ae.ge.com, or Crystal Harmon at crystal.harmon@pw.utc.com or Victoria Briscoe at VBriscoe@msn.com, please leave a voice message at 216-214-7056.

JEANNIE THOREN will be at Geiger's!

Make Sure You've Got the Right Gear Ladies—one of the 100 most influential skiers of the Century (Ski Magazine) will be at Geiger's (Oct 13 & Oct 14) to help women be the best skier.

It's Jeannie's mission in life to get women on the right gear, fitted for their bodies, with the bindings in the right place on skis (which is different from men). She quickly points out that women's bodies are different than men's and therefore your equipment should adjust accordingly.

When/Where: Thursday, October 13th at 10:00A: Geiger's Clothing & Sports 14710 Detroit Avenue Lakewood, OH 44107 (216-521-1771)

Or on Friday, October 14th at 10:00A: Geiger's Ski and Sport Haus, Chagrin Falls 22 W. Orange Street (440-247-4900).

Itinerary: Light brunch to be followed by Jeannie's humorous presentation, "Women Are Not Small Men." Appointments will be scheduled afterwards for individual questions and concerns.

Ice Skating Party on November 13th!

Please come and join us for an ice skating party on November 13th, from 5:00-6:30pm at the Cleveland Heights Community Center. Winking Lizard Bike 2, the Sequel

Sept. 10

We had another beautiful Saturday for biking and lunch at the Winking Lizard. Tim, Kathy, Matt, Ed and Chip rode 10 miles south to North Akron and found Shangri-La. Along the way we found a place that certainly did not smell like heaven on earth. In fact it smelled more like, well, let's just say it took everyone's breath. There was a whole lotta coughin' goin' on during that stretch of the ride. We were warned before we left that it would take 15 minutes to ride through. It was more like 5 but just seemed like 15. It was a lot better going back - must have been the wind. After the ride we had a 20 minute wait for a table at Winking Lizard and Chip had to take off. That left four of us swapping white water rafting stories and discussing the advantages of Cleveland over Dayton.

Hiking With Dogs

Sept. 12

We had a great hike at the Rocky River Nature Center. Tim knew the trails well and did a wonderful job leading us through the woods for about an hour. When we returned to the nature center the dogs got to drink water from the dog fountain. There are two more dog hikes this month on October 3 and 10 (both Mondays at 5:30 p.m.) You can bring your dog or just yourself. The fall leaves should look beautiful.

Tinker's Creek Hike

Sept. 18

Trip Leaders: Victoria Briscoe & Cheryl Alden

KUDOS to the hikers who managed to arrive on time for this while the trip leaders were still lost! Once everybody got there, we hiked along Tinker's Creek hoping to find the Gorge Scenic Overlook. There were some pretty views of the creek, rocks and a tiny waterfall. Eventually the trail became two trails & we hiked up the one that was a very steep hill. We got to the top and saw a parking lot and realized we were not going the right way. We hiked back down and went along the creek. The trail ended and we hadn't gotten to the overlook yet. We hiked back to our cars.

Several of us drove to the overlook and we saw the creek down below. We made a second stop at the trail to Bridal Veil Falls. We found the falls and also saw a toad and some unique mushrooms. It was a fun hike.
