NASA Lewis Ski Club - One Day Trips Plans and Flyers Are Out

3 Day Trips Down & 3 to Go - Sign up Now

President's message... The ski season is in full swing, and we had three outstanding one-day trips in January. And as I write this, our club members are enjoying the powder at Telluride! Ahhh, wish I was there with them...

There is still time to sign up for our one day trips. The Kissing Bridge trip on February 5 promises to be great fun, but we may have to cancel it if we do not get enough people to sign up for it. Call your friends now, and get on this amazing trip during the height of the ski season.

You'll be glad you did! Check out the newsletter for information on all of our one day trips.

If you like cross country skiing, we have some Saturday morning outings to enjoy. Please see the "Nordic News" section of this newsletter for more information.

Our next meeting will be held on Tuesday, February 2 at the 100th Bomb Group. The social hour is at 5 p.m. and the meeting starts at 6 p.m. Come out and have a beer with your ski club buddies.

Enjoy the season! Lori

Congrats to Lori Manthey, our Club President, on accepting an opportunity to work in Washington DC. She will complete her term as President from Washington, but has left the day to day operations of the club in the capable hands of Stacey Bagg, VP of Alpine. Here you see Lori passing the mighty baton of Ski Club power to Stacey at our January Meeting.

The ski season is in full swing, and so is our race season! The CMSC Weekend Race Series kicked off at Holiday Valley with a giant slalom on Saturday Jan 9th, and a slalom on Sunday. The NASA race team was well represented as usual at this popular event. Finishing 9th out of 10 teams on Saturday and 5th in Division 2 on Sunday, the team had many outstanding performances. Individual results are included here, but most noteworthy for the weekend were the strikes earned by both Elise and Therese in CCVW! Congratulations ladies!

On Saturday Jan.23, dual slalom and dual GS snowboard races were held at Kissing Bridge. With two racers on the hill, the team still fared well in the standings, finishing 7th out of 8 teams in Division 2. Individual results are included as well. No strikes to report, but a good day for the team just same. Best wishes go to Laura Hurst of the Snowballers for a quick recovery from her injury and emergency surgery. Article by Mark Hyatt

The next races will be at Cockaigne and Peek n Peak. We will have results from those in next months newsletter.

Wilderness Lodge/Peek'n Peak Trip Report (from the Nordic point of view):

On Saturday, January 16, 2010, we had a combined Nordic/Alpine trip to Wilderness Lodge in Pennsylvania (Nordic) and Peek'n Peak in New York (Alpine). Both Nordic and Alpine skiers boarded the bus on a beautiful Saturday morning. We got to sleep in a little bit later because the bus ride was shorter than our usual day trips. As the Anderson bus driver was briefing us on what to expect on our bus trip, Linda Elonen-Wright did her best impersonation of a flight attendant (you had to be there, it was hilarious!). We were treated to water, juice, bagels, oranges, apples, and granola bars. We were well-fed and well-hydrated before our bus had to tackle the icy and hilly Weeks Valley Road on the way to Wilderness Lodge. Fortunately for us, the bus has chains that automatically wrap around the wheel with the push of a button. People were doing the "wimps only" salute while riding the roller coaster hills. After dropping off the twelve Nordic skiers at Wilderness Lodge, the bus went to Peek'n Peak to drop off the Alpine skiers.

At Wilderness Lodge, we had a light mist in the morning, but that was a perfect condition to learn how to cross-country ski. Larry Anderson, of our club, graciously agreed to conduct lessons, both beginning and intermediate. I took the beginning class, and managed to stay upright a higher percentage of time than on the ground, so it was a huge success. Congratulations to Connie Dean, first time cross-country skier. She did great job learning how to ski, after taking only one class from the instructor extraordinaire, Larry Anderson! Larry took the intermediate class on Cardiac Hill (I'm glad I missed that lesson!) Thanks to Larry for being so patient and talented. All of us met in the Wilderness Lodge for lunch. The food was delicious, just like mom used to make (if your mom was a good cook). In the afternoon, the sun came out and we enjoyed many more hours of skiing. The more expert skiers went on all the trails. We waited for the Alpine skiers to join us for dinner. The dinner was choice of orange glazed chicken/rice/broccoli or vegetarian pasta, salad, homemade bread, and dessert (carrot cake, bread pudding, or chocolate cake). No one left Wilderness Lodge hungry or not pleasantly satisfied. Linda Elonen-Wright and Dianna Hosta-Stickney went above and beyond the call of duty as trip coordinators, and doubled as waitresses. The adventure was not over. The bus driver announced that the bus was stuck. He grabbed a shovel and tried to free the bus from the Wilderness Lodge parking lot, but he was not successful. To the rescue—the manly men of the NASA Lewis Ski Club! While the women sat in the back of the bus, the men pushed the bus (while inhaling those toxic bus fumes) forward and on toward freedom. We boarded the bus and was treated to water and homemade chocolate chip/oatmeal raisin cookies from the goddess chef (Linda Elonen-Wright). Everyone enjoyed the bus ride home, and we were all thankful that we could relax and not have to worry about driving. We all had a good time, both Nordic and Alpine skiers. This was a terrific idea to have a combined Nordic/Alpine ski trip. Thanks so much to Linda and Dianna for organizing this event! Article by Teresa Monaco. Photos by Paul Burik

Linda, Nancy & Allen

Margaret, Kathy, Ray, Allen & Jan
