President's message... October is coming to a close, so that means our Ski Queen Pageant and Kissing Bridge Appreciation Party are here NOW! We wish our Queen Sue the best as she goes in; she has already been through the first round of questioning but she still has the on-stage part of the pageant! Go SUE!!

Remember, November is Membership Month- Please renew your membership today, and get all your friends to join, too! Also, consider posting our flyer around at your work place or apartment; our ski club offers great activities for everyone, and we want to spread the word.

For the November meeting, we will have extra food to welcome potential new members, as well as lots of entertainment and raffles. Little Mountain, Ltd. Will be there to show off some gear and Bob Laws will show you how to get - and stay - in shape for ski season. We will also be re-commencing our annual habit of raffling off one-day trips at the meeting as well as two special raffles for Telluride and Crested Butte lift tickets. As they say, "You can't win if you don't play".

Speaking of one-day trips... we are releasing the first 2 flyers for Holiday Valley and Holimont, so you can sign up now. They are a great deal at $65 for bus, snacks, and lift tickets. Sign up early, before they sell out!

Stacey

Our thanks to Gorden Geiger of Geigers Ski & Sport Haus, <http://www.shopgeigers.com>; for attending our October meeting an giving us an informative review of what is new for the upcoming Ski and Boarding season.

White Elephant Exchange at December Club Meeting: At our general meeting in December, the club will hold our somewhat annual white elephant exchange. All you have to do to participate is bring a very nicely wrapped "white elephant" to the club meeting. The "white elephants" examples from previous years ranged from a goofy ski hat, to a beautiful framed picture of a pile of skis to some lovely etched glass wine glasses, to a silly Christmas bear to a Chia pet, to WHAT-EVER! So, you bring your gift; check in and get your number and place the gift on the table. Your number will determine the order in which you get to go and select another gift from the table during the exchange. You open it, and then you get one chance to go and select/steal from the previous openers! It has been a lot of fun in previous years - watching the current selectee "steal" away a treasure from the earlier openers! The first selectee gets final pickings! Please join in on the fun this year. Find that 'white elephant' and wrap it up pretty and come on down!

Holiday Lights Lolly the Trolley Tour-Tinsel, Tales, and Trees-Dec. 11th Saturday. The best of Trolley Tours and the Holiday Season merge as you experience Lolly's nationally known narrated One Hour City Sightseeing Tour featuring the past, present and future of Cleveland while viewing the available lights. You will see and learn about North Coast Harbor, Public Square, Downtown, the Warehouse District, Gateway and the Playhouse Square Theater District. Then it's off to the Cleveland Play House Festival of Trees stroll indoors among the delightful decorator-designed "themed trees" and to gather ideas for your holiday house! The public tour is approximately 2 hours long. When available, they will try to include a short stop at the Arcade or Tower City. Adults $18.50 Children ages 6-17 $12.00 (This is a 2-hr. guided tour and not recommended for children under 5.) Contact Barbara Knipple 440-808-8147 or dancerb@wowway.com Please reserve by Nov. 15th

RECAP of TREMONT ART WALK

A good time was had by all. The weather was sunny and warm as we met at Grumpy's Cafe & Restaurant on W. 14th. The food was good, with reasonable prices. Afterwards, we left some of our cars in their spacious parking lot and car-pooled over to Professor Ave. where the galleries and shops are. We parked in front of St. Theodosious. This Russian Orthodox Church was open and friendly church members invited us to view the historic landmark. It was gorgeous inside! A very informative guide answered any questions we had and invited us back to the a capella choir's Christmas Concert the 3rd Sunday in December. (The church was featured in the movie, "The Deer Hunter".) We then strolled next door to Wine & Design(a wine and interior design store), Lilly's Chocolate Shop (excellent "works of art" chocolates) which we HAD to try, Geode(jewelry) and a custom-furniture shop. As we walked down Professor, we stopped for ice cream sampling flavors like pomberry(pomegranet) and pumpkin. When we had our fill of food, art, jewelry, vintage furniture, and clothing shops, we headed for home.. Article by Barb Knipple

Racing News

Be sure to attend our November meeting, where Bob Laws of Singleton Health Services will give a presentation on preseason conditioning for Alpine and Nordic skiing and snowboarding. Several of our members regularly attend Bob's muscle conditioning classes at the fitness center. We can all attest to the effectiveness of his approach and methods, even though it hurts sometimes! There will be a special fundraising event at this months meeting as well, to benefit the race team. Three day lift ticket packages for Telluride and Crested Butte will be sold by silent auction to the highest bidder, and proceeds will support the race team. If you are planning a trip to Colorado this year, this is your chance to score some value priced lift tickets, and support your Club racing program. Be sure to check out the schedule for the upcoming racing season at <http://skicleveland.com/adraceschedule.html>. We start the season off with an all day clinic at Kissing Bridge on Saturday January 8, followed by a Giant Slalom race on Sunday January 9, also at Kissing Bridge. Get those skis and boards out of storage and off tho the shop for a good tune up, and get yourself to the gym! It's time to get ready to hit the slopes!

See you there!
