NASA Lewis Ski Club: Vail Colorado 2011 Trip Report (Trip Leaders: Paul Senick and Cheryl Alden)

Vail SAYS IT ALL !!! That's what my poster said, and that's what we all experienced on this trip. Despite 7 arrivals to Denver, yes 7, flights from around the country, 6 of the 7 were early, and the one that was late didn't impact our scheduled bus time. We got powder (POW !) on the day we arrived making our bus ride interesting but uneventful and our first ski day magical. We had fun meeting our multi-state skiers at the Welcome Reception where we enjoyed wine and cheese/crackers and Cheryl Alden and I made various souvenir type mementos available from Vail Resorts including two EPIC hats for our first two sign-ups, Ron Howard and Doug Morris. We also passed out everyone's lift tickets and a $15 lunch voucher I'd obtained through Vail Resorts which was good for any restaurant on the hill and really came in handy considering Vail's food prices !

On Tuesday, we had our mid-week party with pizzas, panninis, and vanilla frosting dough rolls along with whatever people purchased with the party beverage money I budgeted into the trip and had passed out on the bus-ride up. Everyone really seemed to enjoy meeting everyone else and talking about the "best conditions in 25 years", NASTAR racing and medals won, the club skiers who smoked us all down the hill like the Humphrey's and the Zangmeister's, the amazing restaurants, and the beautiful villages of Lionshead and Vail. With the completion of the Arrabelle hotel in Lionshead, the village transports you into a true Bavarian winter wonderland from the architecture, shops, and Christmas lights abound.

On Wednesday, trip leaders Paul Senick and Cheryl Alden took their off day and went for a stroll around Vail Village down a favorite path of Cheryl's and came back ENGAGED ! Wedding bells almost rang before we returned but simply ran out of time. Magic was certainly in the air...

One of our Vailers who was a non-skier, explored a variety of activities from shopping to dog-sledding to spas and had a wonderful time. As I'd promised, "Vail" says it all".

Despite a range of ages and skiing abilities, there were no major injuries to report and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the trip!

On Friday, despite needing to leave at 5am sharp, we all made it onto the bus to leave our snowy paradise behind for home. Vail definitely was EPIC ! Article by Paul Senick

Nordic News

Many of us have enjoyed the simplicity of skiing on fresh snow without driving or busing for many hours. Nordic, cross country skiing can provide all of you that wonderful winter activity. I am planning a few dates in the Cleveland snow belt that we can get introduced to this simple fun winter sport that is great exercise and conditioning for down hill skiing and life.
