NASA Lewis Ski Club

Bringing on the fresh pow

Nearly 30 skiers and snowboards went to Vail, CO the last week of January. It snowed nearly every day, so there was plenty of fresh powder to be had. Pictured is the group trip leader Jim Slifka took down Riva Ridge, a run that is over 3 miles long with a couple of steep passes. See more on page 4-5.

Next meeting

Tuesday, Feb. 5, 100th
Bomb Group, 20920 Brookpark

President's message...

Frigid temperatures and lake effect snow have returned this winter season, providing fabulous ski conditions at the local resorts. Hopefully you are taking advantage of the snow while the season lasts. Go skiing, snowboarding, cross country skiing, snowshoeing, sledding, snowman building, or whatever suits your interests, just get out and enjoy winter before the spring melt down. As a reminder, the club's remaining two alpine day trips are approaching fast. Sign up early to ensure you don't miss out on all the fun. For those of you on the trip to Banff in March, the club's alpine day trips are a great way to make sure those ski legs are ready for a week on the slopes.

Looking ahead, please consider taking an active roll in the club by considering a club officer/chair position. Club officer nominations will take place at the March Club meeting, with elections the following month. This club can only thrive with help from the members.

Lastly, keep a watch on your email for club meeting topics and club activities. See you out in the snow!

Last seen with a heaping handful of "healthy" oatmeal chocolate chip cookies...

Vail post trip report

What can we say, we had pow pow, sick pow, freshy pow, cherry-cherry pow, Snorkel weather pow, knee deep pow... and did I say groomed pow... What a week!! We had fresh powder every day... along with a little sun thrown in here and there. 30" over the week... Back bowls maybe waist deep... in spots. It was just one of those weeks where even the grooming crew at Vail would groom a slope and there would be another 3" or 6" on top... How sweet it was... If you didn't know how to ski the powder... you sure learned by the end of the week... And amazingly, no one got hurt...

The trees were full of snow all week, especially on Thursday, when the pow got up to waist deep in places.

Our condos, Simba Run, were very nicely appointed with updated units with great full wall windows facing the mountains. The indoor pool was the largest one I have ever seen at a resort and the indoor and outdoor 20 person hot tubs sure hit the spot. I was very impressed with Simba Runs private shuttle service, never more than a few minute wait. Ask the Jerry Hill about his bear themed and pillow unit. He sure got a kick out of it.

The group gathered in Simba Run's meeting room for the mid-week party catered by Moe's BBQ.

Speaking of Jerry, while sitting in the hot tub, his nephews, Joel and Nathan, said "ya, he took Gerry and Gary, their father, to do some moguls." I'm thinking they took them off the side somewhere to do a few small ones. O' no, they took them on Blue OX.....I said What ??? I know Gerry & their father don't do moguls... Blue Ox is a half mile of black diamond bumps... and they lived to tell about it. Wow... Monday I shepherd a group of 10 down Vail's signature 3-mile trail, Riva Ridge. They only groom it once or twice a week, so I said now is the time to do it. I was very proud that everyone accomplished that feat as a group ... even the "Tourist Trap" section which at one time was a double black.

In celebration of Vail's 50th anniversary this year, the resort built a new gondola, One, in Vail Village, replacing a high-speed chair that was there before.

Wednesday evening we had Vail's #1 rated Moe's BBQ cater our meal... Every item was top notch and delicious. We closed out the week with a "clean-out your frig party in Luis Fernandez, Barb Felmar, Jim Zinser and Allen Porter's unit Friday night.

Overall, the trip went very smooth... flights, ground transportation, rooms, hot tubs, skiing, parties... We had a great bunch of Lewis members, with many regulars and a few new, hopefully returning skiers.

Jim & Diane Slifka

What kind of pow is this supposed to be? Either way, it is a lot.

Trip leader Diane Slifka takes a breather while waiting for the rest of the group to arrive.

Trip leader Jim Slifka, along with Mark Chernesky and Jim Zinser, take a rest while riding on one of Vail's two gondolas.

Those wanting to get up the Wildwood Express lift, which is a path to the Back Bowls, got stuck in a long lift line Friday as weekend skiers and snowboarders came to experience some of the season's best conditions.

Seven Springs trip – Jan. 18

Unfortunately, our trip leader, Lisa Ferenc, was not feeling well and she bowed out of the trip. Tom Vannuyen and Mike Kalkenstein agreed to step in to help run the trip.

The forecast at Seven Springs was supposed to be high 28 for Friday 1/18/13 when I looked at weather.com on Thursday night. When we got off the bus at Seven Springs, the weather was in the brisk 16 degree F. It finally crept up to about 25 degrees in the afternoon. We had a full bus of 52 skiers and boarders. We enjoyed the breakfast snacks of blueberry muffins, sticky buns, bananas and apples, juice & water. Our bus driver got us there in at 9:30 am, which was awesome. Yeah, more time on the slopes. :)

We had a minor snag of someone grabbing the wrong boot bag. We were able to find the correct owners and do a swap.

Some runs were closed and some you had to steer around the snow making machines. The morning was beautiful. The sun came out for most of the day. The trees looked like they had some water freezing on them. They look like glass with a light layer of drifting snow on them. The morning was excellent snow on the North Face. Overall, I thought it was a wonderful day of skiing.

We had several people asking to rent equipments on the bus and we were able to reserve that for them saving them some $$$. We had some new members and they all agreed it was a lot of fun and they will definitely come for another trip.

Everyone was on their own for dinner with the bus departing shortly after 7:00 pm to head home. Most were relaxed and tired as they talked about what a great day they had!!

Racing News

The 2013 CMSC weekend race series kicked off at Kissing Bridge on Saturday, January 5th with a Giant Slalom race. The team had a strong start with Marilyn, Bruce, and Mark getting gold medals. We also gained a new club member and ski team member – Jody qualified into BBM on telemark skis. Overall, the team did awesome and placed 4th in Group II.

On the weekend of January 12th-13th, the races were held at Holiday Valley with Spring skiing conditions. In the Giant Slalom on Saturday, Marilyn won the solo gold medal, but Lisa got silver and Don L. got bronze medal. The team grew again with Edie qualifying into CCVW and James into CCM. Neither of them had even run race gates before, but both did great and are hooked on racing. The forecast for the Slalom race on Sunday, January 12th was rain and warm temperatures in the 60's, but the showers avoided the slopes and our team shined. FOUR team members earned gold medals – Marilyn, Bruce, Lisa and Edie (in her first points race!).

After a weekend off from racing, winter finally arrived for the Swain 1 race weekend January 26th-27th. The Slalom on Saturday was a challenge, but everyone that finished earned medals. The Giant Slalom on Sunday was super-fun. Everyone had a great time with Bruce leading the team with a gold medal!
