President's message...

Ski/Board Friends,

2015 is here and we have started our ski/board season. It's time to get out and enjoy the winter season!

This year we have multiple trips plan for you. For Alpine, we have trips to Holiday Valley, Holimont, Seven Springs, and Kissing Bridge. For Nordic, we have Chapin Forest, Wilderness lodge, Big Met, and Laurel Hill. Come and join us for some fun in the snow.

Our own Nordic VP, Margaret Proctor along with Linda Elonen Wright will have a discussion on cross country skiing at the January 6, 2015 club meeting. If you ever wanted to try cross country skiing, come out and try it at Chapin Forest. Several of our very own NASA Lewis Ski Club experts are available to lead small groups in classic and skating technique and the lessons are FREE. Yea!! :)

Thanks to all who signed up for membership and trips online. It really is a major time saver and less work for the volunteered trip leaders. We want to thank all the trips leaders who volunteered to run one day, weekends, and weeklong trips. Without their volunteering efforts, we would not have so many fun trips for the club.

Lastly, let's recruit friends and family to join you in the great snowy outdoors. Make it a goal to recruit at least one person each month.

See you on the slopes.

Tom Vannuyen
