President's message

While we wait for the snow to fall and ski season to begin....

Get a little extra mileage out of your Halloween costume and wear it to the November 1st Club meeting. We'll be having a Halloween party and costume contest. Valerie, our Nordic VP, has donated some fun decorations and prizes! So bring out your funny, scary, fancy, original and best costumes to the party and have a little fun!! As for scary....I'll share with you some information about the need for liability insurance for the club.

Also, start looking in your closets for that perfect item to bring to the White Elephant gift exchange at our December meeting. Bring a wrapped gift of less than $25 value to exchange. It can be something you have, but no longer need or something new. Linda E-W will set the rules and lead the gift exchange. Our past white elephant gift exchanges have been full of fun and surprises! Come and enjoy a relaxing time during the holiday season.

In January, one of our own club members, Eric McFarland, will present a program on photography and skiing. Be sure to sign up for the one-day trips as soon as they open to get a seat. Sign-ups open 30 days ahead of the trips.

And....if you haven't done so.... renew your membership before Nov. 15th!

See you Tuesday!

Margaret Proctor

There's still time...

The winter season will be quickly upon us. It's time to get your equipment checked and ready to go. The sales have already started, new boots, new skis, that board you've wanted is calling your name! Once you have the equipment squared away, the question remains, where will you go? There are spots left for Mount Bachelor, Oregon. I had the pleasure of talking with Curtis Bell at the Boston Mills Open House. He shared with me that Bend, Oregon is his absolute favorite ski town ever. For those who don't know Mr. Bell, he has traveled extensively around the country and abroad skiing more places than I could ever imagine traveling to. Consider signing up for this exciting adventure, you will not be disappointed.

Greetings Nordic Skiers!

I'm preparing some fun activities for the 2016-17 season. A group of us got together at a recent Ski Club meeting (held the first Tuesday of the month – see Ski Club website - if you'd like to join us) to discuss past and future Nordic trips/events and brainstormed some ideas which I'll share with you now so you can give me your feedback.

1. Chapin Forest (rentals available) – weekends Saturday – afternoon or Sundays afternoons (proposed dates: Sunday, 2/26/17 1:30-4:30pm, etc.)
2. Metro Parks – Big Met (rentals available) and other golf courses (proposed dates: Flex Fridays- lunch time).
3. Wilderness Lodge near Peak n Peek – could drop off x-country and downhillers then meet for dinner at the Lodge.
4. Art Roscoe – NY – near Holiday Valley – might do x-country and downhill – long weekend trip.
5. Lake Placid – great for cross country skiing – could be part of Lapland Lakes trip (see below)
6. Lapland Lakes – NY – rent a house – possible week-long trip (or, Sunday-Thursday discount).
7. Hut to Hut week-long cross country adventure – in Washington State.
8. White Grass – Canaan Valley, W.Va. – has a state park lodge.
9. Wisp Ski Resort in Maryland – 4 hr drive, has Nordic center with lessons, week-end trip.
10. Hardwood Hills – near Barry Ontario – north of Toronto – stay in B&B – fill a bus – Feb ?– Fri/Sat night. Visit downtown Toronto?
11. Tree tops – Gaylord, Michigan – both downhill and cross-country – progressive dinner – either on your own or part of their deal. 6 hour drive - probably minimum 2 nights – 3 day trip.

Nordic Skiers Mini Survey:

Are you interested in long term trips (more than 1 day)? Yes No

Which of these (numbers 1-11) proposed trips/outings would you be interested in going to? (list numbers here)

Which of the multi-day trips would you be willing to lead? Feel free to propose your own location if you would like to lead it!

Please cut and paste this little survey, fill in your answers before Dec. 1st, send it back to nordic vp

October Activities

Bike ride - After postponing our ride for a week due to weather, several of us set off Oct. 8 for a ride on the Cuyahoga Valley Towpath. The weather turned out to be nearly perfect, sunny and around 60 degrees. We rode from Rockside Road to Peninsula in seemingly record time, where we took a lunch break at the Winking Lizard.

A few more joined us there, including Steve R., who was celebrating his birthday. We then made our way down to Szalay's Farm Market, where we stopped for a minute before going to Indigo Lake, where we caught the train back up to Rockside. It was a long day but a very enjoyable one. -Allison

The Lewis Ski Club was well represented at the Village's Welcome Winter party Oct. 13. The Village provided tasty liquid refreshments and nice array of snacks. Everyone received an entry into a prize raffle and our very own, Steve R. won the grand prize. He will be welcoming winter with a brand new pair of Elan skis. Be sure to congratulate him at the next meeting. A big thank you to Ed, the Village staff and Ray with Elan for making it a great time for everyone! -Cindy

Oktoberfest - Good food and good fun was had by the dozen or so members that attended the Oktoberfest at Donauschwaben Oct.15. The gang gathered around one TV in the back corner of the bar and cheered our Indians to a win. We then celebrated with great music, dancing, food and beer, then more beer and maybe there was one more beer. -Cindy

Upcoming Activities

Friday, Nov. 11 - Buckeye Sports Center's Annual Ski Club Night - Come on out for this fun annual event at Buckeye from 6-9 p.m. Specials will be offered and staff will demonstrate the latest in snow sports. HERE THERE & EVERY WHERE

It's been 67 years since ski-film pioneer Warren Miller picked up a camera to capture the wonder, the adventure, the humor and the beauty that is skiing. Since that time, Warren Miller film crews have traveled the globe from storied slopes to hidden, snow-covered corners to celebrate all things snow sports. Their quest has taken powder-hungry filmgoers, well, Here, There & Everywhere and this year, The Civic Theatre's 20th year of hosting this event, continues that legacy.
