PRESIDENTS MESSAGE:

It's great to be back! I am honored to serve, again, as the President of the Lewis Ski Club. Yes, many of the names have changed since I've hung around, but the dreams (of skiing) have remained. There seem to be many additional changes to the club due, mostly, to changes in technology. Looking forward to a positive year of skiing and socializing!

See you Tuesday!

Prez for the Prez.

VP ALPINE:

LOOKING FOR A FEW GOOD PEOPLE:

As the summer winds down, I feel the pull of the winter reminding me of all that needs to be done to give our members snow experiences unlike the other ski clubs and there are many clubs to chose from. Starting with the basics, I am searching for another bus company. Whereas last year's search found most companies close in price, I just want to be sure that we can't do better, lowering the cost of a trip for our members. The day trip schedules have been set and are now on line. I am still waiting for you to contact me and volunteer to run one of the trips in need of a leader. I am completing the budgets for the day trips, I will tell you how much money you have for snacks on the bus and driver tip. Everything is on line so you have no responsibility in collecting monies. It is a great way to get to know other members. Email ALPINEVP

The board is also looking ahead to 2019 and extended week long trips. Where do you want to go? Are you going to run that trip? Join the Trip Committee! Meetings follow the general meeting quarterly

This fun, free, family-oriented event takes place in the great outdoors of Brecksville Reservation. Between the hours of 11 a.m. and 5 p.m., you can enjoy the lively strains of folk music, dip your own candle, play with pioneer toys, and see how tin figurines are made. You'll hear the hammer of the blacksmith, the danceable beat of the Mud in Yer Eye band, and the gunfire of the Brigade of the American Revolution. Bring the whole family to smell the wood smoke, taste the fresh-pressed cider, marvel at the magician, and children can make a pot of posies to take home.
